

Spirit Point Events

Your organization can win spirit points by attending and participating in various events during Spring Jam. Below is a breakdown of the spirit points that can be earned during these events. Below, the four Spring Jam Spirit Point Categories are broken down to display the potential value of each event. Various members of the campus community have been assembled to assist in recording attendance, sportsmanship, and other aspects of participation during various Spring Jam events.

Important Notes:

- Organizations begin events with all sportsmanship points and can only lose these points by displaying poor sportsmanship.
- Organizations can also lose the entire day's spirit points for serious violations of other organization's feelings and personal wellbeing.
- Executive committee members have the ability to determine what constitutes violations.
- Executive committee members are only responsible for explanations during events; if conversations about legitimacy of sportsmanship violations are needed they will occur after programmed events.
- To discuss sportsmanship violations contact John Hutchinson via e-mail: hutc0108@umn.edu
